Clifton Cricket Club understand that you may wish to celebrate your child's success by photographing and filming matches/ training sessions. Filming your child can document their enjoyment and progress and film and photography are widely accepted to contribute to the enjoyment of cricket. However, sharing an image of a child can pose direct and indirect risks to children if not managed appropriately. For the safety and welfare of other children (who may not be able to have their images shared) please DO NOT share images of any child other than your own.

Section 7 – Changing Rooms

If your child is selected to play in a Senior Team where adults and children need to share a changing facility, do you give consent that your child/ren can share a changing room with adults in the club.
